PASTORAL SEARCH UPDATE

Our search team and consistory have made their recommendation for our next Pastor and have invited Paul Smith to be NLCC's next pastor. Paul is a Commissioned Pastor out of Third Reformed Church in Pella and currently serves part-time as one of two church planters at "The Way" in Newton while he continues to work as an engineer at Pella Corp. We plan to have Paul meet NLCC the weekend of June 12. Paul is gifted in visioning, leadership, and evangelism while displaying good pastoral skills as well. You will not want to miss this opportunity to meet Paul and his wife Kristin, so save the date! Paul's Bio and details of Commissioned Pastors are at the bulletin table.

CONSISTORY ELECTIONS & ADVISORY VOTE ON SUNDAY, JUNE 12

Thank you for your prayer and nominations for our 2011-2012 Consistory.

The slate being brought before you for election is:
Elder—Joel Bouwers & Deacon—Clyde Klein.

We will be voting on the nominations on Sunday, June 12 in a congregational gathering. Also at our congregational gathering, we will take an advisory vote on our Pastoral candidate Paul Smith. After being with us for the weekend, we will come together, share thoughts, and then take an advisory vote regarding our candidate.

THOUGHTS FOR THE FUTURE

We had great conversation on May 15th about the future of New Life! Some options for our future are on the wall in the Gathering Room for you to make comment on.

The statements for comment are:

1. Let's stay at 2nd Ave.
2. Let's explore other options in Coralville.
3. Let's get on with developing a plan to move to our land at Dane Rd.
4. Let's pray more about this.

Please respond by attaching your thoughts to the poster with one of our sticky notes. The Consistory will be considering your thoughts and begin making decisions in their next meeting on June 7th. Please respond—your thoughts matter!
